

Lala de Dios, Madrid

President of ETN – European Textile Network; Moderator

BA in Art History at the Universidad Complutense, Madrid. President of the European Textile Network, ETN, and Textile Artists Association of Madrid, ACTM. Professional activities related to the design and production of handmade textiles and the organization of exhibitions, workshops, conferences and textile markets. She has worked in various cooperation projects and is interested in a redefinition of the role of crafts in the global market namely the conservation of traditional know-how and the collaboration between artists, designers and craftsmen of "both sides" of development. Interests: textiles, design, innovation and networking.